On the 5th of November 1605, a man called Guy Fawkes and his friends decided to try to blow up the Houses of Parliament and kill king James I. People discovered the plotters and the gunpowder before they could blow up the government. Every year on the 5th of November in England, we celebrate Bonfire Night.

LOUIS BRAILLE (1809—1852)

Louis Braille was born in 1809 in Coupvray, France. When Louis was 3 years old, he was blinded in an accident when he was playing with tools in his father's workshop. At 15, he invented a reading system of 6 raised dots, known today as Braille. Braille is now an international reading and writing system that helps millions of blind people in their daily lives.
