

Partition Numbers to 100

1. Jack and Emily are representing numbers on part-whole models. They have to share the tens and ones below. What numbers can they make? Find 3 possible answers.

DP

2. Asif represented a number using a part-whole model, but then he knocked it over. At least one of the tens and one of the ones fell on the floor. What could his number have been? Find 3 possible answers.

DP